GUIDED BY A BIG MAP BOSTON BLOCK BURNS

Showed Barracks at Fort Brown and Brownsville.

HARRIS AGAIN HEARD

Former Negro Sergeant Said That the Twenty-Fifth Infantry Was Displeased at Entering Saloons in Rear.

Washington, Feb. 6.—The hearing on the Brownsville "shooting up" affair was resumed by the senate committee on military affairs Tuesday. A large map of Fort Brown barracks and the city of Brownsville, which had been placed on the wall of the committee room, was carefully studied by the senators. The witnesses, whose number had grown to twenty, were again corralled in one of the corridors of the senate, and only one of them allowed to enter the committee room at a time.

The session began with former Sergeant Harris of Company D still on the stand under a sharp fire of cross questions by Senator Warren. Mr. Warren's questions related largely to the time when the soldiers were called for the roll call and inspection. He could not definitely state the time, but said that it was very early in the morning. It might have been 6:30, but it was not really dark. Senator Lodge then stated that the records of the naval observatory showed that the sun rose at Brownsville on Aug. 14 at 5:27 a. m.

Senator Warren had the witness detail the trouble that had previously occurred between citizens and members of the Twenty-fifth Infantry at Fort McIntosh and San Antonio, Tex., and the witness said that on account of the feeling engendered against the soldiers he had determined not to enlist, and was continually expecting trouble because of prejudice against the race. Senator Everman asked the witness if he ever had any trouble, and he replied, "No, sir."

Harris said he was not treated badly. He did not put himself in a position to be so treated, but that the men generally complained because they were compelled to enter saloons by the rear door. He could not give an instance of ill treatment of others, but he wanted, he said, "the American right of going where he pleased."

The witness believed the firing on the night of the Brownsville affair had come principally from Winchester and six-shooters because he said he was familiar with the sounds of various makes of weapons, and that he heard no firing from Springfield rifles, with which the Twenty-fifth was equipped. The witness was then excused and the committee adjourned until Wednesday.

Thirteen Other Persons Injured, Two of Whom, a Mother and Babe Two Days Old, Are in a Critical Condition.

Boston, Feb. 6.—The block on Tremont street, in the Roxbury Crossing district, occupied by the department store of Hunt Bros. and several tenements, was entirely destroyed by fire Wednesday. The monetary loss is estimated at $100,000.

Jacob Gold was overcome by smoke and died before medical attention reached him. Thirteen other persons were injured. Two of those hurt were taken to a hospital in a critical condition. They are Mrs. Kate Glass and her baby, the latter only two days old. The fire department was hampered in reaching the scene by a huge snow-drift that blocked the city's streets.

Many thrilling rescues were made by police, firemen and members of the Shawmut Athletic club, which was holding a meeting in the block at the time the flames were discovered.

The tenements were occupied by twenty families, totaling about 120 persons.

MALES ONLY VOTERS.

Hanratty Will Fight on Further Restriction of Suffrage.

Guthrie, Feb. 6.—Without further amendment the constitutional convention Tuesday morning adopted the section of Tuesday morning adopted the section of the suffrage report restricting the right to vote to male citizens of the United States, of the state, and male persons of Indian descent. Realizing equal suffragists are in the minority in the convention, Labor Leader Peter Hanratty will make his fight on the section which empowers the legislature to further restrict suffrage, but not to extend it, thus keeping the legislature from granting woman's suffrage. A shower of amendments came on the last part of the first section, which reads that no persons convicted of felony nor insane asylums may vote.

The report of the banking committee filed limits legal interest rate to 6 per cent, with 10 per cent as maximum on contracts.

The Weaver memorial asking congress to insure lands upon which restrictions are removed going to natural persons instead of corporations seeking land monopoly was adopted.

There is a big difference between the cost of making a first-class sewing-machine, embodying the best of materials and workmanship, and one which is made in the cheapest manner. IMPORTANT BUSINESS CHANGE.

Eugene Edge Purchases the Interest of Sam B. Wilson in the Wilson & Edge Business—Will Make Notable Improvements.

Announcement was made shortly after noon yesterday of the consummation of an important business deal by the terms of which Mr.
Eugene Edge has purchased the interest of Mr. Sam B. Wilson in the large dry goods and millinery business of Wilson & Edge, the trade becoming effective at once.

This firm has enjoyed a splendid patronage from the beginning of its business, and it is the purpose of Mr. Edge not only to maintain the high standard of the past, but to increase the scope and volume of the business by enlarging stock and increasing facilities. To this end he will put a new and thoroughly up-to-date plate glass front in his store building, install new fixtures and cut out the center of the ceiling, leaving a space railed in around the side and front walls and put in shelving in the second story for more available stock room.

In enlarging the business Mr.
Edge will spare no pains or expense in making his millinery department adequate to the increasing demands upon, and will the coming season employ two of the most expert trimmers, one of whom will come from Chicago and the other from Dallas. The latter lady has been for the past four years with A. Harris of Dallas and was for two years previously with the San-gers of Waco.

Mr. Edge is a popular and competent young business man substantially identified with the community and in every way capacitated to carry out the plans he has formed, and the Eagle predicts that a full measure of success will reward his enterprising efforts and progressive methods.

The Eagle is glad to announce that Mr. Wilson has no intention of leaving Bryan. On the contrary he will remain with Mr. Edge, and requests the Eagle, to express his sincere thanks to his friends and the public for the many favors and courtesies extended to him in the past, and to voice his invitation to each and all to continue their favor and patronage to the business, with which he is identified in a new relation, and ready to serve them.
Mr. Wilson is a young business man of fine ability and Mr. Edge is fortunate in securing his services.

MARY CARSON KIDD IN HOUSTON.

Concerning Miss Kidd's Concert
in Houston last Monday night, the Post of Tuesday has the following to say:

"Never in the whole history of the Houston theater has so big, so brilliant and so enthusiastic an audience been assembled within its walls as the one of last night which gathered to do honor to Miss Mary Carson Kidd, the finished artist and fine woman, who was born and brought up in this city.
All the eight opera boxes were filled and two additional stage boxes, formed by a graceful screening of palms and tall plants. ***

Since her childhood Mary Kidd's voice has been a rich source of rare delights to everybody who has known her. It has always been an organ of perfect and exquisite sweetness. She has now had many years of the finest training under the best masters in this country and in many European cities as well. Last night's performance show her to be the perfected artist, and now in the complete fullness of her natural powers. Her voice has developed dramatically forceful qualities and a marvelous evenness of strength throughout the entire range that is most satisfying to the educated ear and intellect."

Miss Kidd will give practically the same programme at A. and M.
College next Saturday night. A special train will convey all from Bryan who desire to take advantage of this rare opportunity, returning immediately after the concert.

WILL ENLARGE HIS STOCK.

In reporting the change of the firm of Chmelesky & Sebesta yesterday morning the Eagle neglected to state that Mr. John M. Se-besta, who has purchased the business, will largely increase the stock and employ additional salesmen.
He has had a number of years experience with some of the best firms in town, in addition to his experience in business for himself, and his success is assured. He invites a liberal share of the public patronage and will give careful personal attention to the wants of his patrons.

WHITE MADE THREATS.

Boman So Testifies in the Thaw Trial
on Wednesday.

New York, Feb. 6.—Interest in the Thaw case Wednesday centered in the maneuvers of counsel for the defense, who, at the end of Tuesday's proceedings, were in earnest consultation among themselves as to the future conduct of the case. It was decided to put the matter squarely up to the defendant, and before court opened Wednesday all six lawyers who have represented Thaw since the beginning of his trial went into the prisoner's pen to discuss the matter. They were still in the pen when Justice Fitzgerald took the bench and they filed into the courtroom along with the defendant. All the lawyers took their accustomed places at the counsel table.

Countess of Yarmouth and Mrs.
George L. Carnegie, sisters of the defendant, and Mr. Carnegie were present, also Edward and Josiah Thaw, his brothers.

When the court's session began Mr.
Jerome stated that on adjournment Tuesday the point pending was as to the admission of certain testimony by a witness who was about to state a conversation held with Thaw in January, 1904. The court sustained the objection to the question interposed by the district attorney, but invited citation of authorities.

It was said Mr. Delmas had delivered an ultimatum that he would withdraw from the case unless given a free hand in conducting the fight for Thaw's life. The results of Tuesday's proceedings were anything but satisfactory to all concerned in the defense.

District Attorney Jerome replied to Mr. Delmas that a matter of allowing Witness Boman to state a conversation with defendant was pending Tuesday and should be finally decided before bringing in further examination.

Mr. Delmas thereon said he would withdraw questions asked witness which caused the objection to be entered. This was agreed to.

Mr. Jerome said he would withdraw his objection to the introduction of evidence tending to show insanity in collateral branches of the Thaw family provided certain questions asked witness offered Tuesday were withdrawn.

"We withdraw the questions," said Mr. Delmas, "and will go over the matter again."

Mr. Delmas then directed that Benjamin Boman, whose testimony had been excluded Tuesday, be recalled.

Boman said that in 1903 he was doorkeeper at Madison Square Garden theater.

"Did you know Stanford White?"

"Yes."

"And Harry Thaw?"

"Yes."

"Did you ever hear Stanford White make threats against the life of any person?"

"Yes."

Mr. Jerome objected to this, saying he was not assured the defense was to be one of self-defense.

Mr. Delmas declared that every defense the law allows was to be taken advantage of.

Mr. Jerome withdrew his objection.
"A few nights after Christmas," witness resumed, "Stanford White came up to me after the show and wanted to know if Miss Nesbit had gone home.

I told him she had. He replied: 'You are a d—n liar. I told him to go back on the stage and see for himself.
'When he returned and as he passed me he pulled a pistol from his pocket and muttered: 'I'll find and kill that d— before daylight.'

Witness stated a vile name he said White had applied to the man whose life he had threatened in a loud voice.

"Did you communicate this threat to anyone?" asked Mr. Delmas.

"Yes, I told a detective sergeant."

"I object to that," said Mr. Jerome.

"Did you communicate that threat to this defendant?" asked Mr. Delmas.

"Yes, I met him on Fifth avenue and told him I wanted to speak with him regarding Miss Nesbit. I then told him of the incident at the theater and White's threat."

"What was Mr. White's condition when he made the threat?"

"He was black in the face with anger."

Jerome asked that answer be stricken out as improper and the court so ordered.

"What was Mr. White's manner?"

asked Mr. Delmas.

"He was very angry."

"You may take the witness," remarked Thaw's counsel to the district attorney, and the cross-examination was begun.

At the conclusion of Boman's direct examination Justice Fitzgerald said:
"If there are any persons in the courtroom whose sense of propriety would be offended by the testimony of this witness the court will give them an opportunity now to withdraw."

"We must ask the court to bear with us in bringing out this testimony," explained Mr. Delmas, but it is essential."

"It is perfectly right and proper," Justice Fitzgerald quickly assured the lawyer.

"There are ladies here, however, and I think they should be given opportunity to withdraw if they so desire."

Countess of Yarmouth and Mrs.
George L. Carnegie quickly left the courtroom.

District Attorney Jerome took Witness Boman and for the better part of an hour questioned him closely as to his employment and places of residence during the last five years, attempting to secure house numbers and other details.

LEGISLATORS WELL PLEASED.

They Consider that the A. and M. College Needs all Asked for and More.

The House appropriation committee, composed of Representatives P. H. Clements, W. A. Trenckmann, J. C. Ralston, J. T. Curry, F. Johnston, Ben Gafford, W. J. Bryan and W. C. Davis visited the A. and M. College yesterday afternoon and returned to Austin last night. They were driven over the grounds and conducted through the various departments, accompanied by President Harrington and Major L. L. McInnis, member of the board of directors.

They also saw the dairy and dairy herd and other live stock, investigated cotton breeding, the textile engineering work and the department of entomology. They visited the mess hall and inspected the meats and cooking and were well pleased with the food supplied to the corps.

They were emphatic in their expressions that the College needs all and more than the authorities are asking for, and seemed perfectly satisfied with the manner in which the affairs of the institution are being conducted.

The visit to the overcrowded departments disclosed the pressing need for an engineering building, and the visitors said they needed no further evidence than the tents on the campus to prove the need of additional barracks.

The interest, enthusiasm and attitude of the committee strengthens the already well grounded belief that the present legislature will respond to the demands of the people of Texas and deal generously with the A. and M. College.

FERNANDO 3703.

The Eagle has heretofore made reference to the magnificent German coach stallion, "Fernando 3703," recently purchased by Mr. Nathan Powell of College Station. The state and stock papers have had much to say of this fine animal, and we have before us copies of the Southwestern Farmer and Breeder, the Fort Worth Daily Live Stock Reporter and the Ft. Worth Telegram showing pictures and elaborate write-up of this horse. Full information regarding Fernando 3703 may be had upon request of Mr. Powell, and the animal will be found at Mr. Geo. D. Tucker's Stable in this city on and after March 1.

SEE SI PLUNKARD TONIGHT.

An advance notice says: The popular attraction, a Rural Comedy, entitled "Si Plunkard" will be at the opera house tonight. This is one of the most laughable plays ever put upon the stage, but at the same time it has an interesting plot. It is presented by an excellent cast with the famous character comedian J. C. Lewis in the title role. The piece is the production of a clever comedian who knows the public wants and has set himself at work to meet the demand, the result is a rural comedy drama full of queer situations and quaint characters and enlivened by that indefinable snap and go, which is the life and soul of a rural comedy drama.

BUSINESS CHANGE AT TABOR

Mr. Clarence Elliott has purchased the interest of Mr. Horace Ferguson in the general merchandise business of Wiley & Ferguson. Mr. Elliott is a capable young business man and in his association with Mr. J. W. Wiley, who is well known and popular, the Eagle bespeaks for the new firm the same favor and patronage which the business has heretofore enjoyed. Mr. Wiley and Mr. Ferguson were in the city yesterday.

The semi-annual examinations at Villa Maria Academy were finished the past week, involving a large amount of labor on the part of pupils and instructors, but all felt amply repaid by the splendid records made by the young ladies of the various classes.

ANOTHER INVESTIGATION.

This One is to Inquire into Efficiency of State Employees.

Austin, Feb. 6.—The senate has another investigation on. This time it is to investigate the efficiency of employees of that body. The question came up over a resolution which was referred to the committee on contingent expenses, for the employment of an additional stenographer, and when the report came up there was opposition to it and resolution offered and adopted.

The senate judiciary committee No. 2 reported favorably on the anti-bucketshop bill which had been up for consideration the past week.

The divorce bill occupied the time of the senate Wednesday and several speeches on the proposed amendments were made.

The senate passed finally the Huds-pet bill granting two years' extension on time for railroads to comply with contracts for building extensions, etc. Among the bills introduced in the senate was one by Harbison providing for the creation of county and city depositories, the same as the law now providing for state depositories.

A bill was also introduced by Messrs. Willacy and Glasscock for creating a department of agriculture. It carries an appropriation of $15,000.

Another anti-bucketshop bill was introduced in the senate Wednesday.

TWO IMPORTANT MEASURES.

Bucketshop Bill and the One to Reduce Passenger Fares.

Austin, Feb. 6.—The house devoted Wednesday morning to committee work and there were several animated sessions over important measures, among them being the "bucketshop" bill and one to reduce passenger fares to 2 1/2 cents over Texas lines. The former is in the hands of the judiciary committee, and among those present were persons representing the stock and cotton exchange interests. The latter is before the committee on common carriers and a number of prominent railroad passenger men, as well as general attorneys, were present. W. C. Crush, general passenger agent of the Katy, and Judge E. B. Perkins, general attorney of the Cotton Belt, were before the committee to make protests against a reduction. The argument is advanced that Texas railroads as a whole cannot stand such a reduction.

Mr. Connell's bill to regulate the operation of mines was before the mining committee. This measure is advocated by union labor.

Before the committee on agriculture was heard arguments of E. W. Kirkpatrick, McKinney, J. S. Kerr, A. W. Orr and others in favor of the agricultural bill.

FATAL COLLISION.

Freight and Cattle Trains Clash With Disastrous Results.

Alvarado, Tex., Feb. 6.—In a rear-end collision here between Katy cattle and freight trains at 1 o'clock Wednesday morning, Johnnie Wright, a boy, and a man, name not ascertained, were killed. Young Wright was a Katy messenger boy and was on his way to Denison to learn a trade. He was a nephew of Conductor Wright.

AUTHOR ARRAIGNED.

Galveston Press Severely Scores Party Starting Earthquake Story.

Galveston, Feb. 6.—The local press severely arraigns the author of the absurd earthquake canard sent out of Galveston and published in a Houston paper. The statement was made that Galveston felt shocks Sunday, the rumblings being sufficiently distinct to be heard quite a distance. Vases were alleged to have been shaken off of mantels, etc. Such ungrounded things do Galveston a great injustice. If any person here felt a quake it was the paper's correspondent. Commercial bodies here are talking of denouncing the publication of such article.

Grand Jury Investigating.

Baton Rouge, Feb. 6.—Investigation of the circumstances under which Congressman-elect George K. Favrot shot and killed Dr. Harry Aldrich last November was begun here Wednesday by the grand jury. There is much speculation as to whether Congressman Favrot will not be set free without an indictment.

Sherman Distributing Point.

Sherman, Feb. 6.—Mr. Tallahan, in charge of a construction gang, passed through here from Beaumont to Tulsa, I. T. He has the contract for the 400 miles of pipe line to be built by the Texas Oil company. A distributing station is to be located here. He expects to reach Sherman in two months.

Dalzell Presided.

Washington, Feb. 6.—Representative Dalzell of Pennsylvania called the house to order Wednesday, Speaker Cannon being ill. The house at once went into committee of the whole for further consideration of rivers and harbors appropriation bill.

COUNSEL DISPLEASED.

Examination by Attorney Stated to Have Not Been Satisfactory.

New York, Feb. 6.—Many and conflicting rumors, but all in effect that serious differences of opinion as to the conduct of the defense in the Thaw murder trial, followed a conference of the prisoner's attorneys Tuesday night. The reports were based chiefly on the understanding that Thaw's choice of John B. Gleason as the leading factor in the defense was not satisfactory to the other attorneys, particularly Delmas and McPike.

From one source it was declared that five of the attorneys had told Mr. Gleason that he must not usurp the chief role of the defense, or if he did the others would retire from the case. Elsewhere it was declared on alleged authority that the matter had been referred to Thaw, who had elected that Mr. Gleason be deposed.

Written authority was given to Clifford W. Hartridge to act as chief counsel, with Mr. Delmas in charge of all examinations, it was stated. Mr. Gleason, it was said, would act henceforth merely in a consulting capacity.

A serious cause of complaint, it was declared, was that at a conference held on Monday night Thaw's legal advisers decided not to call Dr. C. C. Wiley, the Pittsburgh alienist, as a witness at the present time, and it was, therefore, with the greatest surprise that they heard his name called by Mr. Gleason as the first witness. It had also been their intention to call Mrs. Evelyn Nesbit Thaw, but this was frustrated. In spite of all these reports not one member of the defendant's counsel would confirm or deny them, or be quoted as to the exact status of the matter.

LED TO DEATH.

John Richards Accidentally Wounds Himself With His Ax.

Vinita, I. T., Feb. 6.—John Richards, a farmer who lived in the timber a few miles south of Grove, I. T., was found dead in the woods near his home. Richards had gone about a quarter of a mile to chop some wood. When darkness came he had not returned, and his wife became alarmed and notified the neighbors, and a search was started. The body was found on the ground about thirty feet from where Richards had been at work. There was a deep gash cut just above the shoulder, and it is believed that his ax slipped as he was cutting timber, severing an artery, from which he bled to death. After the accident it appears that Richards started home and got a few steps away when he stopped, sat down and tied a shoestring around his leg above the wound in an effort to stop the blood. He leaves a widow and several children.

NO WOMAN SUFFRAGE.

Proposed Amendment Was Defeated In the Convention.

Guthrie, Feb. 6.—The vote by which the proposed amendment to the report of the committee on suffrage extending the right of franchise to the women of Oklahoma was tabled by the constitutional convention Tuesday afternoon is indicative of the position of that body on suffrage on the question.

The report does not mention women voters, and the amendment was defeated by a vote of 58 to 26. Final action was not taken.

President Murray, in a speech, denounced the efforts of the Unionists to insert the proposed woman's suffrage plank in the constitution.

MINIMUM FREIGHT RATE.

Representatives of Governors Hold Conference at Topeka.

Topeka, Feb. 6.—A conference of the representatives of governors of nearly all the states in the middle west regarding oil regulation was begun here Tuesday. Representatives are here from as far east as Ohio.

ARMISTEAD TESTIFIES.

Dallas Newspaper Man Tells Why He Telegraphed Bailey.

Austin, Feb. 6.—Before the investigating committee George D. Armistead, a Dallas newspaper man, testified regarding two telegrams he had sent to Senator Bailey in April, 1900. The first of these, he said was sent to the senator at Parsons, Kan., and the second to him at the Planters hotel in St. Louis. He said these were sent just after Senator Bailey had left Texas, just at the close of his successful campaign with Senator Chilton.

The substance of both the telegrams, Mr. Armistead said, was that it was generally believed that Senator Bailey's political enemies were endeavoring to send delegates to the national convention, and if possible prevent the senator's friends from going to the national gathering. He said that soon after these telegrams were sent, Senator Bailey returned to Texas, but he did not see him until the state convention at Austin on June 21 or 22.

Mr. Armistead's testimony was in accord with the public statements which Senator Bailey has frequently made on this point.

SMITH'S SUBSTITUTE.

As Adopted It Provides Committee Can Take One Attorney.

Austin, Feb. 6.—In the senate a substitute to several amendments, offered by Senator Smith, that the subcommittee go north to be permitted to take along one attorney, and he to be a Texan, was adopted. The bill was passed. It gives the subcommittee power to secure evidence in and out of the state.

The committee on revenue and taxation reported favorably Strickland's inheritance tax bill, with graduated tax rate for different amounts inherited.

MIDWINTER PEACH.

Record Broken In the Growth of This Kind of Fruit.

Jacksonville, Tex., Feb. 6.—North Jacksonville has broken the record, having produced a well developed ripe peach in January. Several days ago A. B. Floyd exhibited a limb taken from a peach tree growing on J. C. Phillips' place in the northern part of the city to which was attached a well developed peach, apparently full ripe and well colored. The fruit is that known as the Alexander variety, named after a prominent family of this place. Evidently the bloom came during the fall and the peach survived what few cold snaps that have occurred. So far as is known, this is the first ripe peach seen here in January.

BLOWN INTO RIVER.

Boilers of Steamboat Blow Up Not Far From Chattanooga.

Chattanooga, Feb. 6.—By an explosion of the boilers on the steamer Parker near this city George Kelly, a negro, was killed and V. L. D. Sibley and Bob Bass, deck hands, were blown into the water, and are supposed to have drowned.
